

The Visa Keys To Europe

18/07/2014

Spanish Real Estate News

The real estate market in Spain got a boost on the 29th September 2013 when the-Spanish Government approved the-Investors-Support and Internationalization Act-(14/2013).

This new law was to include a residency program that would guarantee investors permanent residency in Spain if they invest and maintain, an investment into property of at least,-€500,000.

The holders of this Residency Visa-or-Residency Permit-would possess the same benefit of the-Schengen Visa, entitling the holder freedom of movement within the member state territories.

An investor's spouse and children under-the age of 18 can also benefit from the same-investment under a separate residency-application.

Nearly 12 months on and Asset Folio have seen the positive effects this new law has had with new routes to makets opening up.

Following a successful launch of The World project in Dubai in June <http://www.assetfolio.com/view/pdf/10-06523947/development-brochure-internal/>-this iconic investment opportunity allowed our clients in the Middle East the opportunity to take the Visa option should they wish plus secure the best units and allow for maximum growth with their investment a win win for some clients who did not know this new law had been implemented.

Asset Folio's next opportunity has arrived again through the new Golden Visa law with the launch of a new €60,000,000 exclusive villa complex, the design and concept of this project will be a first for Spain and will be launched in Shanghai in September watch this space.....
