

Asset Folio on the up!

19/03/2015

Company News

The start to 2015 has been an exciting time at Asset Folio. In February the company moved into their new 250 sq.m of immaculately designed offices in Puerto Banus, complete with specially commissioned furniture and state-of-the-art facilities.-

With there precise expansion plans they have also taken on several new multilingual staff, able to provide a proffesional service to the growing number of clients who prefer the company's discreet and bespoke apparoach to business. In the first months of the year, Asset Folio has been involved in some of the most exciting property deals in Marbella, as well as adding some of the most attractive developments to the company's property profile.

Asset Folio also recently "soft launched" the company's new luxury rentals website. Offering a fantastic selection of properties for short term rental, Asset Folio will offer the best selection while providing unparalleled service to both property owner and end user alike. Now in its final stage of development and testing the website if you would like to have a pre-view-<http://rentals.assetfolio.com>, as we will be going live within the next few weeks.

The current growth of the Marbella property market has already been well documented in the international property press, with an understated yet effective and highly professional and client orientated approach to this market, Asset Folio is quietly leading the way with its contemporary way of investing in property in Marbella, and will be launch -more exciting developments during 2015.

To arrange an appointment to meet our team please email us at info@assetfolio.com