DESCRIPTION

Situated within a secluded seaside area close to all amenities is a beautiful beachfront estate that offers a private domain extending for 60 metres along the shoreline. While you can find frontline beach villas in Marbella, such a large, private and secluded beach estate as this within a few minutes of Puerto Banús is unique.

The large grounds, which measure more than an acre, offer a seaside retreat of unrivalled peace and privacy surrounded by manicured lawns, subtropical greenery and unequalled sea views.

The property finds itself within a tranquil, exclusive residential area that is close to all amenities, including golf, fine dining and shopping, but offers a unique blend of seaside location and peace. La Perla Blanca offers direct access to a sandy beach along its 60 metre-wide sea-fronting plot, as well as uninterrupted views of the sea all the way to Gibraltar and North Africa.
