DESCRIPTION

Luxury villa in contemporary architecture combined with materials and finishes of the highest quality in an exclusive residential area in Marbella. South facing main reception room, open plan entertaining, dining, kitchen and reception areas and direct access to the terraces with uninterrupted views of the Mediterranean coast of Africa, the Golf Valley and La Concha. The villa features a contemporary living room with an open gallery, floating staircases with stainless steel railings, a large fireplace and stunning panoramic views from every angle. The basic concept of the design of the living environment was to create a villa that is at the same time open to nature but also sufficiently protected against the climate. The wonderful sea views are maximally utilised with large glass windows on the facades. Large elevated first-floor terraces to the front offering superb southerly views to all first-floor bedroom suites.
